MEMPHIS APPEAL.

THE PLATFORM.

The Democratic party, in National Convention assembled, reposing its trust in the intelligence, patriotism and discriminating justice of the people; standing upon the Constitution as the foundation and limitation of the powers of the Government, and the guarantee of the liberties of the citizen; and recognizing the questions of slavery and secession as having been settled for all time to come by the war or the voluntary action of the Southern States in Constitutional Conventions assembled, and never to be renewed or reagitated; do, with the return of peace, demand,

1. Immediate restoration of all the States to their rights in the Union under the Constitution and civil government of the American people.

2. Amnesty for all past political offenses, and the regulation of the elective franchise in the States by their citizens, and the payment of the public debt of the United States as rapidly as practicable.

3. All money drawn from the people by taxation, except so much as is requisite for the necessities of the Government, economically administered; should be honestly applied to such payment, and where the obligations of the Government do not expressly state upon their face, or the law under which they were issued does not provide that they shall be paid in coin, they ought, in right and justice, to be paid in the lawful money of the United States.

4. Equal taxation of every species of property according to its real value, including Government bonds, and other public securities.

5. One currency for the Government and the people, the laborer and the office-holder, the pensioner and the soldier, the producer and the bondholder.

6. Economy in the administration of the Government; the reduction of the standing army and navy; the abolishment of the freedmen's bureau, and all political instrumentalities designed to secure negro supremacy; simplification of the system and the discontinuance of inquisitorial boards for assessing and collecting internal revenue, so that the burden of taxation may be equalized and lessened; the credit of the Government and the currency made sound; the repeal of all enactments for enrolling the State militia into National forces in time of peace; a tariff for revenue upon foreign imports, and such equal taxation under the internal revenue laws as will afford incidental protection to domestic manufactures, and as will, without impairing the revenue, impose the burden upon and best promote and encourage the great industrial interests of the country.

7. Reform of abuses in the Administration, the expulsion of corrupt men from offices, the abrogation of useless offices, the restoration of right and authority to, and the independence of the Executive and Judicial departments of the Government, the subordination of the military to the civil power; to the end that the usurpations of Congress and the despotism of the sword may cease.

8. Equal rights and protection for naturalized and native-born citizens at home and abroad; an assertion of American nationality, which shall command the respect of foreign powers, and furnish an example and encouragement to people struggling or national integrity, constitutional liberty and individual rights, and the maintenance of the rights of naturalized citizens against the absolute doctrine of immutable allegiance, and the claims of foreign powers to punish them for alleged crime committed beyond their jurisdiction.

In demanding these measures and reforms we arraign the Radical party for its disregard of right, and the unparalleled oppression and tyranny which have marked its career, attempt in a solemn and unanimous pledge of both Houses of Congress to prosecute the war exclusively for the maintenance of the Government and the preservation of the Union under the Constitution.

It has repeatedly violated that most sacred pledge under which was rallied that noble volunteer army, which carried our flag to victory.

Instead of restoring the Union, it has, so far as in its power, dissolved it, and subjected ten States in time of peace to military despotism and negro supremacy.

It has nullified there the right of trial by jury.

It has abolished the habeas corpus, that most sacred writ of liberty.

It has overthrown the freedom of speech and the press.

It has substituted arbitrary seizures and arrests, and military trials and secret Star Chamber inquisitions, for constitutional tribunals.

It has disregarded in time of peace the right of the people to be free from search and seizures.

It has entered the post and telegraph offices, and even the private rooms of individuals, and seized their private papers and letters, without any specification or notice of affidavit, as required by the organic law.

It has converted the American capitol into a bastile.

It has established a system of spies and official espionage to which no constitutional monarchy of Europe would now dare to resort.

It has abolished the right of appeal on important constitutional questions to the supreme judiciary tribunal, and threatens to curtail or destroy its original jurisdiction, which is irrevocably vested by the Constitution, while the learned Chief Justice has been subjected to the most atrocious calumnies, merely because he would not prostitute his high office to the support of the false and partisan charges preferred against the President.

Its corruption and extravagance have exceeded anything known in history, and by its frauds and monopolies it has nearly doubled the burden of debt created during the war.

It has stripped the President of his constitutional power of appointment, even of his own cabinet.

Under its repeated assaults the pillars of the Government are rocking on their base, and should it succeed in November next and inaugurate its President we will meet as a subject and conquered people amid the ruins of liberty and the scattered fragments of the Constitution; and we do declare and resolve that ever since the people of the United States threw off all subjection to the British Crown, the privilege and trust of suffrage have belonged to the several States, and have been granted, regulated and controlled exclusively by the political power of each State respectively, and any attempt by Congress, on any pretext whatever, to deprive any State of this right, or interfere with this exercise, is a flagrant usurpation of power which can find no warrant in the Constitution, and, if sanctioned by the people, will subvert our form of government, and can only end in a single centralized, consolidated government in which the separate existence of the States will be entirely absorbed, and an unqualified despotism be established in place of a Federal Union of equal States.

That we regard the reconstruction acts of Congress, so-called, as usurpations, unconstitutional, revolutionary and void, and that our soldiers and sailors who carried the flag of our country to victory against a most gallant and determined foe, must ever be gratefully remembered, and all the guarantees given to their favor must be faithfully carried into execution.

That the public lands should be distributed widely among the people, and should be disposed of either under the pre-emption or homestead laws, and sold in reasonable quantities, and to none but actual occupants at the minimum price as established by the Government.

When grants of the public lands may be allowed, necessary for the encouragement of important public improvements, the proceeds of the sale of such lands and not the lands themselves should be so applied.

That the President of the United States, Andrew Johnson, in exercising the power of his high office in resisting the aggressions of Congress on the constitutional rights of the States and the people, is entitled to the gratitude of the whole American people, and on behalf of the Democratic party we tender him our thanks for his patriotic efforts in that regard.

Upon this platform the Democratic party appeal to every patriot, to call gall the conservative element and all who desire to support the Constitution and restore the Union, forgetting all past differences of opinion, to unite with us in the present great struggle for the liberties of the people, and that to all such, to whatever party they may have heretofore belonged, we extend the right hand of fellowship and hail all such co-operating with us as friends and brothers.

FLORIDA.

—The foundation for a large and commodious hotel has been laid at Marianna.

—Wine, it is said, is being made in Gainesville, of tomatoes, and is reported splendid.

—The proprietorship of the East Florida Banner has been transferred to Messrs. Samuel Agnew & Co.

—Along the Mosquito Creek Valley the scuppernong grape is cultivated extensively and successfully, the wine made from the juice being equal in flavor to the best champagne.

—The steamer Alabama sailed from Fernandina for New York last week with a full cargo of cotton, naval stores and other freight, also quite a number of passengers.

—The contract for carrying the mail from Tampa, via Cork and Alafia, to Bartow, has been awarded to Mr. Robert Wilkison, of the latter place.

—The Tampa Peninsular says: "The orange crop in this section of country is very promising, and we learn that the farmers at Old Tampa and Clear Water Harbors have already engaged their present crop of oranges at $20 a thousand. The orange, lemon, lime, pine-apple, shaddock, guava and many other tropical fruits are grown finely all along the Gulf coast south of Cedar Keys, and will in a short time be a source of great profit to this part of the State. There is but little capital required in raising tropical fruits, and we hope that the people of South Florida will, for the future, turn their attention more to the raising of fruit than heretofore. With but little capital and little labor, the raising of tropical fruits can be made very profitable."

—Governor Seymour arrived home on the 13th and was welcomed with great enthusiasm by his friends. Bells were rung, cannon fired, fire companies turned out, bands played, etc. The crowd was immense, and enthusiastically cheered the Governor, to whom a formal greeting was extended by Judge Davis.

GENERAL ITEMS.

—S. S. Cox will be sent to Congress this year, from New York city.

—Thomas J. Key, Esq., has started a staunch and live Democratic journal at Corinth, Miss., called the Caucasian, and adopts as its motto, "Any one belonging to the white race and the white races originating near Mount Caucasus." We wish the new paper all success, politically and pecuniarily.

—An anchor dropped from the car of a balloon as it cut loose from New Bedford on the 4th, and, striking a boy named Maltran, fractued his skull. It then caught in the clothing of two other boys and carried them up about forty feet, when the aeronaut cut the line. They fell in some trees, and though taken up insensible, will probably recover.

—During the thunder storm in the vicinity of Shelbyville, Tenn., last Wednesday evening, Mr. Elisha Williams and his wife, living at Fiat Creek, some eight miles east of that place, were struck by lightning and killed.

—The New Orleans Picayune asks: "Can any reasonable doubt be entertained of the stability of a bank whose directors always show a great reserve when questioned about its affairs."

—Missouri has gained 350,000 in population since the war.

—A Londoner wants to bet $10,000 that omnibuses will run with balloons within a year.

—Miles Sharkey, an ex-Collector of levee dues in New Orleans, has been arrested for embezzling $10,000.

—The Prince of Wales is growing bald—so bald, it is said, there will soon be no hair apparent.

—The Government Commissioners accepted forty miles of the Union Pacific Railroad Saturday. Six hundred and eighty-five miles of the road are now completed.

—Felton, who was associated with Cashier Martin, of the Hide and Leather Bank, at Boston, for defrauding that institution, was held for trial in default of $35,000 bail.

—A Yankee having a bill against a neighbor for $20, made it for $19 99, so as to save one cent in not being obliged to use a two cent revenue stamp.

—The tobacco factory of George E Hutchinson, at St. Louis, was seized on Monday for non-compliance with the revenue law.

—Train's unsatisfactory statement in bankruptcy reads as follows: "I owe £12,773, and the way I account for it is by telling you that I spent £6000 on myself, on traveling expenses, offices, and other things. I cannot tell you where the balance went, and you may find it out the best way you can."

—Mr. William Kipp, a wealthy farmer of Farmington, New York, committed suicide on Saturday last, because he imagined he had a cancer in his stomach, an apprehension which a post mortem examination proved to be entirely groundless.

—In Illinois the courts have decided that the system of "selling short," or selling to deliver what you have not got, and really only betting what the price of stocks or grain shall be on some future day, is gambling, and therefore a violation of the State statutes.

—The Vernon (Va.) Banner records the fact that there is living in that county a colored man, named Grigg Harper, who was born in Virginia in 1736, and is, consequently, one hundred and twenty-two years age. It is a remarkable fact that the colored person in question was not "Washington's body servant."

—Advices from New Mexico report that the Kiowa and Comanche Indians are at war with each other. Captives taken on either side are barbarously put to death. Both tribes are hostile to the whites, and threaten to drive settlers out of New Mexico and Northern Texas.

—A rubber carriage, weighing 125 pounds, the entire body of which is made of one piece of hard rubber, one-eight of an inch in thickness, has made its appearance on Broadway. It is without the usual carriage bolts and screws, and presents a perfectly smooth surface, which is not soiled or tarnished by rubbing or handling.

—The Washington Chronicle is for sale. So has always been its owner.

—A. W. Griswold, Cashier of the Burlington (Vt.) Bank, was robbed on a Hudson river train of $60,000 in Government bonds, on the 13th inst.

—Gen. Mauk, formerly registering clerk of the New Orleans Postoffice, was arrested in St. Louis on the 13th, charged with robbing the mail while in the New Orleans office, and abstracting large sums of money. He is on his way South in charge of an officer.

—The Nashville and Chattanooga Railroad Company have leased the Nashville and Northwestern Railroad. Trains commenced running regularly yesterday.

—The case of Col. Boone, for shooting and wounding J. H. H. Woodward in Louisville was called in the City Court Monday morning and continued to the 27th inst. Col. Boone was required to give bonds in the sum of $1000 to answer.

—An immense torch light procession came off in Vicksburg Saturday evening. The Conservatives were out in force.

—A telegram received by Gov. Geary, from Pottsville, Pa., shows that the reports of outbreaks in the mining regions are all false. It seems almost positive that the reports are all circulated by interested parties to raise the price of coal.

For the Memphis Appeal.]

"PONT D'ALLEGRESSE."

We cross it in the rosy light
Of tender peach and cherry-white,
Holding in our happy hands,
Bound with slender willow bands,
Early treasures of the Spring,
Caught in many a golden ring,
Held with a scarlet bough above,
"The banner over us is Love."

The twilight on the common lies,
Through which we look with laughing eyes.
Climbing up the dusky ridge,
We stand on our beloved bridge;
Now by this cedar's plumy fold,
Now by these clusters green and gold,
Now by this scarlet bough above,
The banner over us is Love.

Dear friends, why come we not with tears?
Who part so soon, perhaps for years!
In other lands to see the light
Of rosy peach break through the night.
Ah, friends! the dove who holds her mate
Is careless of another's fate:
How can we hear the mourning dove?
The banner over us is Love.

We stand midway upon our bridge
To see the blossom-tinted ridge;
A foolish wisdom, that of ours,
To seek for thorns beneath the flowers.
Bright leaves hide many a dark abyss,
And if we part, 'tis with a kiss;
And with a scarlet bough above,
The banner over us is Love.

Allegro on the parting day,
Allegro as we turn away;
Analysis with eloquence wrought
Is pleasure sobered into thought;
And thought, alas! might bring the pain
Of those who will not meet again.
Another time thou widowed dove!
The banner over us is Love.

VIOLET LEA.

THE CROPS.

—The Friar's Point (Miss.) Coahomian of the 11th says: Our county has not seen such prospects for a corn crop for a number of years. We learn that our merchants are now completing arrangements with railroad companies to ship corn north.

—The Panola Star of the 11th says: After a drouth of about six weeks, we had a splendid rain on Wednesday last. Our farmers were beginning to be low-spirited, but all are buoyant now, although the corn crop has been cut short one-fourth.

—The West Point Herald says: After a distressing drouth of ten weeks, this immediate neighborhood was blessed on Thursday morning last with a good rain, but we fear it came too late to do the corn much good, as a great deal of it was like Confederate bonds—past redemption.

—The Union City (Tenn.) Herald of the 11th says: Up to last Monday great apprehensions were felt in regard to rain. Many were fearful of a drouth that would ruin this year's crop, but the rains throughout the county in the past few days have given the farmer relief. Corn and tobacco are looking well, and in a good and flourishing condition. With an ordinary season, two weeks hence the farmers of this county will reap a bountiful reward for their labor.

FOREIGN ITEMS.

—A French journal says: Miss Rose Glarkegue, an English lady, has successfully accomplished the ascent of the Grand Cervin (Valais). The paper goes on to say that this daring "Miss" strangled with her own hands a couple of years ago a wolf "dans la foret de Burchase" (Angleterre); and that she is now about to travel in Central Africa for the purpose of shooting panthers, stimulated by the stirring narrative of Sir Samuel Baker.

—The Patria, of Naples, gives an account of a duel between two rag-pickers, caused by a dispute as to the ownership of an article found by one of them. There exists a sort of mutual aid association of these persons, and they usually meet under the plane trees of Casteinuovo to share the spoils of the day. On this occasion two of them quarrelled about the distribution, and went off to settle the difference in a cutting or drain which runs from the Cavone to the Pignacecca. A sanguinary encounter with knives then took place, and the combatants were streaming with blood when arrested by a party of carbineers and carried off to the hospital de Pellegrini.

GEN. GRANT, after twenty-two years of army life, is said to have never uttered a profane word nor had a personal quarrel.—Radical Exchange.

And never got drunk, and wallowed in the gutters; never loafed around barrooms and sponged on strangers for a drink; never lived with a Digger squaw, as her husband; never was caught in open, barefaced, unblushing lies, and had them nailed to him by President Johnson; never betrayed a trust; never carried a thieving wife along with him to steal the silver from Southern tables; never got drunk and made a beastly and indecent exposure of his person on the Sabbath day, on Pennsylvania avenue in Washington City—oh no, he never did any of these things—not he!

The Heated Term.

Seven deaths from sun-stroke occurred in Cincinnati on Monday.

Within the forty-eight hours ending Sunday afternoon, there were ten cases of sun-stroke in Buffalo, seven of which have proved fatal.

In Chicago on Sunday and Monday the deaths from the same cause numbered five or six.

TENNESSEE.

—Mr. Morris Clark, President of the Nashville and Northwestern Railroad, while riding in a street car on Monday last, in Nashville, became involved in a difficulty with a man lately employed on the Northwestern Road, and was quite severely beaten before his antagonist could be restrained.

—The grand ratification meeting to welcome returning delegates from New York, and to ratify the nomination of the Fourth of July Convention, will be held in Nashville to-night.

—The mercury reached 106° in Nashville on Sunday in the shade.

—A detachment of thirty men of the Fifth cavalry, under command of Lieut. Schenoffski, has gone to Knoxville.

—The Banner of the 14th says: We are authorized on the authority of J. W. Brown, Superintendent of the Winchester and Alabama Railroad, and several other gentlemen, to pronounce a hoax the story about the killing of a white man and a negro at Brighton.

—The same paper says: We learn from a passenger from Chattanooga that a soldier was killed in that place Saturday by a citizen, who struck him on the head twice with a stone. It is said that the soldier was intoxicated, and had several times, unprovoked, used insulting and abusive language towards the citizen.

—The same paper has the following: More wild stories of bloodshed and murder reached this city from Maury county yesterday. On Sunday night, two or three negroes entered a room in which a young man named Freeland was sleeping, on the farm of his father, James Freeland, some three miles from Columbia, and before he could make any resistance, buried their knives in his throat, cutting it from ear to ear, and then proceeded to mutilate his body in a most horrible manner, afterwards escaping. Yesterday morning a negro man and a negro woman were arrested and brought to Columbia, on charge of having murdered young Freeland. The woman is said to have been lodged in jail, but her accomplice was immediately seized by a party of white men, who carried him out of the place, and are believed to have lynched him somewhere in the woods not far from town. One of the negroes supposed to have been concerned in the murder of Freeland is still at large. Two other white men, it is alleged, have been similarly murdered since Sunday morning, but no reliable particulars have yet reached here.

Cure for Hydrophobia.

The recipe is that of M. Cassar, a French physician: Take two table spoonfuls of fresh chloride of lime, mix it with half a pint of water, and with this wash keep the wound constantly bathed and frequently renewed. The chlorine gas possesses the power of decomposing this tremendous poison, and renders mild and harmless that venom against whose resistless attack the artillery of medical science has been so long directed in vain. It is necessary to add that this wash should be applied as soon as possible after the infliction of the bite. The following are the results of this treatment: From 1810 to 1824, the number of persons admitted into Breslau Hospital was 184, of whom only two died; from 1783 to 1824, there were admitted into the hospital at Zurich, 223 persons bitten by different animals (182 by dogs) of whom only four died.

A MAN calling himself a "professor" advertised an entertainment in St. Louis the other night, at which he was to expose the mysteries of spiritual manifestations, allow himself to be shot at with pistols, and let the audience into all the secrets of jugglers. After appearing before the audience and requesting those who desired to shoot at him to prepare their pistols, he went behind the stage curtain and that was the last of him. He obtained about $200, and left his hall rent and printing bills unpaid.

—We learn from a Cincinnati cotemporary that the work of laying the narrow gauge rail of the Ohio and Mississippi railway has commenced. Large numbers of workmen have been employed, and it is expected it will be completed in a week.

The Billicose Post.

Editors Memphis Appeal:

The response of the filthy dishrag of Union street Monday evening to the remarks of the President of the Democratic Club on Saturday night, is but of a piece with the outgivings of the Tennessee Radicals for months past. The object of the whole movement is to get up a fuss in the State so as to get up the cry of "wolf," and make capital for Grant at the North. The suggestion that the Democrats of the State anticipate on their own part anything more than moral force, is the sheerest hypocrisy. They know that the Democratic party propose to themselves only open and manly appeal to the sense of justice and pride of manhood that belong to the people of the State. And now, once for all, let me say that the Democratic party intend, at all hazards, to canvass the State thoroughly, from Shelby to Carter. They intend to organize the people with Clubs; they intend to ventilate fully the villainy of Radicalism in and out of the State. This they intend to do thoroughly, freely and fearlessly. They intend to expose the corrupt villainy of Radical tools on the stump and through the press, by private correspondence, by all the means whereby men make known their views, openly and without stint, in the face of day. And now if the Post, its editors, and their thieving plunderers—white and black and yellow—wish to turn the controversy into a fight, they are welcome to begin to-day and choose any corner of the street that suits their fancy, to strike the first blow.

The Democratic party of the State fear no enemy—they decline no contest. They mean to be true to their time-honored customs, and to the honor of their ancestry; and if the Post and its friends desire a fight, they have only to begin.

CAMDEN.

Thirteen Years Ago.

In 1854, Mr. Buchanan was minister to England. Capt. George B. McClellan was detailed on secret service in the harbor of Cuba, under instructions from the Secretary of War. Gen. Quitman, Lieut. Beauregard and others were plotting filibustering raids against the island, for which the Government soon after made an offer of $1,000,000. Parson Brownlow had written a savage work in the defense of slavery, and was challenging Northern clergymen to dispute its divine authority. Gerrit Smith, Wm. Howe, Henry Ward Beecher and a few hundred others were doing a quiet and limited business over the underground railway. John Brown had not yet left his farm in the northern wild. An obscure individual remembered by a few as having once represented Sangamon District, Ill., in the House, and opposed the Mexican war in an awkward, ingenious, and extremely unpopular argument, received a few complimentary votes for Vice President, in competition with Mr. Dayton, the nominee. Capt. U. S. Grant, hardly suspected of being an ex-army officer by those who bought molasses or cord wood of him, was generally taken as a steamboat captain, temporarily stranded by a stress of ill luck or worse, had hardly the energy and pluck to succeed in a business calling, and had therefore collapsed into a speculator in sundries. W. T. Sherman was teaching school in Louisiana. Generals Sickles, Butler and Logan were rough and tumble Democratic lawyers of some notoriety. Two of the most prominent and promising officers of our little army were Col. Albert Sidney Johnston and Lieut. Col. Robert E. Lee. Brief as is the period since then, we have but two men in official life—Mr. Seward and Mr. Chase—whose prominence has not either been created or overthrown during this eventful epoch.—Putnam's Monthly.

"Wild Cat" and his Seminoles.

The chief, "Wild Cat," and his eleven braves left the city of Cairo Sunday evening, for the upper country, on foot, "flat broke," and without one white brother upon whom they could rely for advice or comfort. While "Wild Cat" and his greasy Seminoles were traveling the dusty roads of the country, seeking hospitality, the white managers were en route by rail for a city where they could enjoy the pleasures and luxuries purchasable with the moneys earned by the "gentle savages." These Indians were left in an entirely destitute condition, without sufficient means to purchase eleven ordinary meals; and from what we could glean in reference to the affair, the managers were indebted to each of them, for services rendered, $150. In New Orleans, and all the Southern cities, they made considerable money by their exhibitions; but here they were not patronized, and their stay proved unremunerative. Perhaps this discouraged the managers, who, being "flush" with the money of the Indians, concluded to make themselves provokingly non est, and acting upon this dishonest impulse, left for parts unknown. Such conduct by men who took these Indians from their homes, under promises of protection and fair dealing, deserves punishment. We see by our exchanges that the troupe of Indians preceding this one was served in the same manner, but swindled to a greater extent.—Cairo Democrat, 14th.

Remedies for Charbone.

This dreadful malady, is killing off hundreds of mules and horses throughout the country, and in some places has produced a perfect panic, so dreadful are its ravages. We have been furnished the following remedies which we publish for the benefit of our readers:

Col. Lovell, of Yazoo, recommends smoking with tar and feathers, two or three times a day. After losing thirteen mules and horses he commenced this plan, and has not since lost a single horse or mule by charbone. He also uses a drench composed of a strong decoction of poison oak bark boiled about three or four hours.

Another remedy is an ointment composed of the following ingredients, rubbed on the parts affected: Calcined magnesia one ounce, oil spearmint or other essential oil, one ounce, and half a pint of whisky. This remedy was used on forty-two diseased animals, of which number only two died.—Vicksburg Herald, 13th.

Texas Cattle.

New Orleans boats have almost stopped bringing to our landing the long-horned cattle of Texas. For the past two months all large boats from New Orleans never failed to land at this point hundreds of cattle. On their arrival here they would generally present a very sorry spectacle, being thin, and sickly in appearance. Cattle accustomed to the nutricious grasses of the great cattle ranges of Texas, extending as far toward Mexico as San Patricio and King's ranch, cannot be expected to thrive by being fed on food which they are not accustomed to, and kept in close, filthy places during miles of travel.

Before the commencement of the war the cattle trade with Texas was very extensive, and from indications in the past two months, we are of the opinion it is almost as great as heretofore.—Cairo Dem. 14th.

A GENTLEMAN who returned yesterday from a brief visit to Pass Christian, states that there was considerable excitement among the negroes in consequence of the recent shooting affray by which Mr. Orr lost his life. The life of Mayers had been threatened by the negroes, and it was deemed advisable by the Deputy Sheriff to summon a posse of ten or twelve men to protect Mr. Mayers in the jail, upon which an attack was momentarily expected to be made. At the time the boat left all was quiet, and it is expected that the whole excitement will die out in the course of several days.—New Orleans Times, 14th.

YESTERDAY was a red letter for Louisiana. Not only was it honored by a carpet-bagger and a negro being inducted into its two highest and most responsible offices, but our newly elected Senator, Pitt Kellogg, signalized it by his departure for the capital, there to assume the dignities recently conferred upon him by our coffee-colored Legislature.—N. O. Times, 14th.

THE Yale Courant, published at Yale College, has been greatly enlarged, and is now a very handsome sixteen page paper. It is the only successful college paper on record, and is immensely popular, not only with undergraduates, but with the general public.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, July 15.—Drake called up the House bill to amend certain acts relative to the Maryland marine corps. The amendment of the Naval Committee was agreed to and the bill passed.

Wilson introduced a bill to reduce the army to a peace establishment, which was referred to the Committee on Military Affairs.

The special order for the day being the Indian appropriation bill, it was called for, and the Senate insisted on its amendments to supply vacancies in the executive departments, and Conkling, Edmonds and Vickers were appointed on a Committee of Conference.

The Chair submitted a communication from the President, inclosing a report from the Secretary of State, with a list of the States that have ratified the 14th amendment, which was referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Chandler introduced a bill to extend the custom laws of the United States over Alaska, and establish a collection district therein, which was referred to the Committee on Commerce.

The Indian appropriation bill was again taken up, and a number of trifling amendments from the Committee on Appropriations and Indian Affairs were concurred in, including $5000 for presents to the Indians, without final disposition of the bill.

Sherman made a lengthy report from the Committee of Conference on the tax bill, which was agreed to.

The Senate then went into Executive session, and soon after adjourned.

The removal of spirits in bond is required to take place in nine months.

The special tax on distilleries remains as before.

The tax on the sales of wholesale liquor dealears is to be 1 per cent.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, JULY 15.—The bill introduced in the Senate to-day by Wilson, provides for a reduction of the number of enlisted men to 25 600, to be contained in thirty regiments of infantry, eight of cavalry and four of artillery, and contemplates the appointment by the Secretary of War, of a Board of competent officers, whose duty it shall be to propose a plan for carrying into effect its provisions, and this plan is to be submitted by the Secretary of War, at the next session, and no action will be taken upon it until Congress has given its approval.

The Mississippi Radicals, including Eggleston, the defeated candidate for Governor, appeared before the Reconstruction Committee to-day, demanding the exclusion from the count of votes on the Constitution, the counties of Rankin, Chickasaw, Marshall, Carroll, DeSoto, Lafayette and others. By these means they expect the Constitution to be defeated, and also to elect the Radical State officers and Congressmen. The reason that they allege is, that terror reigned in these counties, and therefore they ask that Congress declare Mississippi reconstructed and entitled to re-admission and representation in Congress. Among the fifteen are several Northern and Western men.

The general understanding to-day is, that Congress will adjourn next Monday or Tuesday.

Between now and the first of September, over 200 male and female employees are to be dismissed from the various bureaus of the Treasury Department, as the appropriation for temporary clerks has been cut down from $275,000 to $100,000 for the present fiscal year. A majority of those to be dismissed are females.

The thermometer in the Senate chamber to-day was 96°.

The Senate has confirmed Wm. M. Evarts as Attorney General.

A letter received here yesterday states that Gen. Grant will probably leave St. Louis for the plains during the week.

The following is the funding bill as it passed the Senate last evening:

Be it enacted, etc., That the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized to issue coupons or registered bonds of the United States in such form and of such denominations as he may prescribe, redeemable in coin at the pleasure of the Government after twenty, thirty and forty years respectively, and bearing the following rates of yearly interest, payable semi-annually in coin; that is to say: the issue of bonds falling due in twenty years shall bear interest at five per cent.; the bonds falling due in thirty years shall bear interest at four per cent.; which said bonds shall be exempt from taxation in any form under any State, municipal or local authority, and the same, the interest thereon, and the income therefrom, shall be exempt from the payment of all taxes or duties to the United States other than such income tax as may be assessed upon other incomes; and the said bonds and the proceeds thereof, shall be exclusively used for the redemption or payment, at the option of the holder or purchaser, or exchange for an equal amount of the present interest bearing debt of the United States, other than the existing 5 per cent bonds and the 3 per cent. certificates, and may be issued to an amount in the aggregate sufficient to cover the principal of all outstanding or existing obligations, as limited herein, and no more, but not to exceed $700,000,000, shall be of the issue redeemable in twenty years.

And be it further enacted, That there is hereby appropriated out of the duties derived from imported goods $135,000,000 annually, which sum during each fiscal year shall be applied to the payment of the interest and to the reduction of the principal of the public debt, in such a manner as may be determined by the Secretary of the Treasury, or as Congress may hereafter direct and such reduction shall be in lieu of the Sinking Fund contemplated by the 4th section of the act entitled "an act to authorize the issue of United States notes and for the redemption or funding thereof and for funding the floating debt of the United States." Approved February 25, 1862.

And be it further enacted, etc., That any contract made hereafter payable specifically in coin, shall be legal and valid, and may be enforced according to its term, anything in the several acts relating to the United States notes to the contrary notwithstanding, provided that this section shall not apply to contracts for the borrowing of currency, the revenue, or extension of any indebtedness under a contract already entered into, unless such contract originally required payment in coin.

And be it further enacted, etc., That from and after the passage of this act no per centage, deduction or commission or compensation of any amount or kind, shall be allowed to any person for the sale or registration of any bonds or securities of the United States, disposed of at the Treasury Department, or elsewhere, on account of the United States, and all acts authorizing or permitting, by construction or otherwise, the Secretary of the Treasury to appoint any agent other than some proper officer of his Department, to make such sale or negotiation of bonds and securities, are hereby repealed.

VAUGHT—On the 3d inst., in Arkansas county, Ark., BATTIE B., infant daughter of C. W. and Mary F. Vaught, aged 2 years, 4 months and 29 days.

Little BATTIE, the beautiful and bright, the mother's joy, the father's idol, the pet of all who knew her, has thus passed away. "A wandering troupe of Angels came" and bore her to the Spirit Land, ere yet a single cloud of earthly care had come to mar her young life. Her cheery little voice in innocent prattle will no more gladden the household or greet the father's coming; yet to the bereaved parents there is consolation in the thought that her cherub spirit is safe within the fold of God, where nought of earthly affliction can ever come. She sleeps

"A budding rose,
Blasted before its bloom;
Whose innocence did a weak disclose
Beyond that Eve ex pertains.
To those who for her loss are grieved
This consolation's given—
She's from a world of woe relieved,
And blooms a rose in Heaven."

Messrs. MANSFIELD & HIGBEE,

Druggists, Memphis, Tennessee:

GENTLEMEN: You ask me for my statement relative to your cure for ERYSIPELAS or CHARBONE IN HORSES and MULES, which you style

"MAGIC ARNICA LINIMENT."

I have used your Liniment in about two dozen cases with perfect success. I had lost all hope of a remedy, but believe your discovery "THE REMEDY." I have not failed in a single case in which I have applied your Liniment. I believe it a valuable discovery. Think every planter should provide himself with the Magic Arnica Liniment. No planter should be without you remedy where this terrible disease prevails. I have supplied each of my plantations. My supervisors report favorable upon every trial.

Very respectfully, yours, etc.,

NOTICE.

City subscribers to the APPEAL, daily or weekly, who may desire to leave the city for the summer, can have their papers sent them regularly by leaving a memorandum at the Counting-room of the APPEAL, No. 13 Jefferson street.

TO CORRESPONDENTS.

Correspondents who wish to have any attention paid to their communications must observe the following rules:

Be brief, concise and to the point, avoid the "flowers of rhetoric," and confine yourself to a plain statement of facts. Write on but one side of the paper in a clear hand, and with pen and ink, giving your words and sentences plenty of room. In all cases the real name and address of the writer must accompany the manuscript. Articles which redound to personal or individual benefit, or are of a personal nature, will only be inserted as "advertisements" or "paid cards."

SIXTEENTH DAY—Thursday—Sun rises 5:10; sets 7:44.

DISTRICT CONVENTION.

The meeting of delegates to select a Congressman and Electors for the Eighth District of Tennessee, will be held at Brownsville on the 8th of August.

STEREOPTICON.—The oxy-calcium stereopticon will be exhibited in town tomorrow evening.

A LITTLE DARKY, seeing a friend of ours about to drop a lump of ice into a bucket of warm cistern water, remarked sagely, "Mars' Bob's gwine to ruin dat ice, putting it into dat warm water."

RAIN.—There was a general rain in the neighborhood of Bartlett station, on the Memphis and Charleston railroad, on Tuesday afternoon—the first that had fallen there for two months nearly.

THE PROCEEDINGS OF THE BROWNSVILLE CONVENTION.—These proceedings, which we understood were sent to the city yesterday to be given to the morning papers, had not come to hand up to midnight last night.

THE BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS met yesterday morning, pursuant to adjournment. Nothing was done of any consequence, except passing a few accounts for payment, the President being in haste to be present at the counting of the Trustee funds.

APPLES.—We notice immense quantities of apples coming into the city, in wagons and by the trains. We learn that they are shipped to the North and Northwest mostly, and that there is an active demand for all that can be brought in.

THE WEATHER.—Yesterday was another cloudy, showery day, the sun shining out in the intervals between the showers with an intense fervor. The weather is just the thing for the crops, and we should not wonder if with all the drawbacks which we have had hitherto, if a fine crop of breadstuffs were yet made.

PERSONAL.

—Capt. Thomas Day, of the house of Forster, Kealhofer & Co., arrived home yesterday from his trip North.

—E. J. Mansford, Esq., of the APPEAL, returned home from his pleasure trip, yesterday evening, looking fine as a fiddle.

INQUEST.—Coroner Samuelson held an inquest yesterday on the body of a negro woman named Jane Williams, who died suddenly at a house on Brinkley avenue night before last. The evidence showed that she had eaten a hearty dinner, and then walked from Linden street to the house on Brinkley avenue in the hot sun, dying soon after she reached her destination. The verdict of the jury was "died from overheating." Deceased was about fifty years old.

FIFTH WARD DEMOCRATIC CLUB. Having to attend to two other meetings last night, it was impossible to attend the preliminary meeting of this ward club. We learn that the following gentlemen were elected officers: President, John P. Tobin; Vice-Presidents, A. H. Douglas, T. W. O'Donnell, W. T. Thurmond; Secretary, R. H. THE HEBREW MEETING.

"General Order No. 11" Discussed.

The Israelites Pledged as a Body Against Grant.

An Immense Meeting and Great Enthusiasm.

The meeting of the Israelitish citizens of Memphis, irrespective of politics, advertised in the Conservative papers, took place last night in the Memphis Club Hall.

About half-past eight o'clock, there being then about two hundred and fifty persons present, L. Kremer, Esq., ascended the platform, called the meeting to order and nominated for Chairman Sol Hess, Esq., who was called to preside, with cheers, by a unanimous vote.

Mr. Hess, in taking the chair, addressed the assemblage, which was every moment increasing very rapidly, in a few happy and telling remarks, in which he explained the object of the meeting—the discussion of the infamous document of Grant's, known as general order No. 11, the bare allusion to which brought forth hisses from all parts of the house.

At the conclusion of the peroration, it was moved that two secretaries be appointed, and Messrs. Chas. Schloss and Chas. Strauss were nominated and chosen unanimously.

On motion the following gentlemen were appointed Vice Presidents of the meeting: L. Kremer, A. Seessel, G. H. Judah, J. S. Menken, H. Loewenstein, Rev. S. Tuska, J. J. Perez, I. Happek, B. Eiseman, S. Levy, M. A. Cohen, Wm. Stix.

It was then moved that a Committee of Seven be appointed to draft resolutions to express the sense of the meeting in regard to the order of Gen. Grant, known as General Order No. 11. Carried, and the following gentlemen were appointed on the committee: L. Kremer, J. S. Menken, G. H. Judah, Rev. S. Tuska, A. Seessel, S. Levy, T. Folz.

As the committee withdrew, Henry Lowenstein, Esq., was called upon, and, amid vociferous cheering, took the stand. We regret that the lateness of the hour and lack of space forbid us giving even an outline of his address, which was eloquence itself.

Capt. Van Anderson was next called on, and addressed the assemblage in his usual telling and happy manner, which, for the same reasons above given, we do not present. He was repeatedly, rapturously and vociferously cheered, and closed amid a storm of applause, amid which it was announced that the committee was ready to report.

Mr. Kremer advanced and read the following preamble and resolutions:

WHEREAS, Ulysses S. Grant, General of the Army of the United States, did, in his official capacity, issue, or caused to be issued, an order known as General Order No. 11, dated Oxford, Mississippi, December 17, 1862, and which order is hereunto appended; and

Whereas, the said General Order No. 11 was an unjust and wanton libel, not upon individuals, but expressly made to apply to the whole race of Israel, branding us as faithless, dishonest and disloyal, and its purpose and effect were to prosecute and persecute those to whom it was applied, on account of their birth, which, with their religion, is their only crime; and

Whereas, The said Ulysses S. Grant is now before the country as a candidate for the highest office in the gift of the American people; therefore,

Resolved, That we, the Israelites of the city of Memphis, do believe that the said U. S. Grant has, by the said order, shown himself unfit for the high position to which he aspires, and incapable of administering the laws to all classes with impartiality and without prejudice.

Resolved, That we each and every one, individually and collectively, as Israelites who have respect for our honor and our religion, pride in our race and love for our country, do pledge ourselves to use every honorable means in our power to defeat the election of the said U. S. Grant.

Resolved, That this meeting is not called for any political or party purpose, but solely to defeat the man who has, by his Order No. 11, insulted the whole Jewish race.

Resolved, That we exhort and admonish our brethren in this and all other cities and towns in the United States, as they value religious liberty and their rights, to do all in their power to defeat the said Ulysses S. Grant.

G. H. Judah, A. Seessel, L. Kremer, Seymour L. Lee. Rev. S. Tuska, T. Folz, J. S. Menken.

These resolutions were greeted with tremendous cheers, and at their close, Mr. Nathan offered a resolution, which was adopted unanimously, that "these resolutions be adopted as the sense of the Israelites of this city."

Mr. Nathan moved that these resolutions be printed in all the Conservative papers of the city, which was amended by striking out "Conservative" and giving them to all the papers.

Mr. Judah moved that 10 000 copies of the same, with the proceedings of this meeting, be printed and distributed throughout the United States.

Mr. Perez moved to amend by adding "and published in all the Jewish papers in the United States."

The chair put the amendment to vote first, and it was carried, but on vote the original motion was lost.

Just before a vote was taken Gen. Albert Pike entered the room and was greeted with tremendous and long continued cheering. He was invited to a seat on the platform, on ascending which he was again and again cheered.

After the vote loud calls were made for Rev. Mr. Tuska, who, however, declined to speak at the time, and the cries were changed to calls for Gen. Pike, who stepped forward and addressed the meeting at some length, eliciting round after round of enthusiastic applause.

He was followed in a powerful speech by the Rev. S. Tuska, who appealed in a manner that carried the most tremendous effect, to the Israelites of all parties, to come forward and be as one man in this movement against Grant the usurper, the tyrant, the proscriber, the persecutor, and the butcher. He plead with the Israelites who had fraternized with the Radical party, to leave it—sacrifice all things to be a unit with the balance of the Israelites, to avenge the foul and deep dyed insult offered to their race and religion. As the chairman had remarked in the beginning, Haman of old never persecuted the Israelites more than Grant, and we will try and elevate Grant only as Haman was.

At the conclusion of his remarks, which were interrupted by enthusiastic applause at almost every sentence, John Sale, Esq., was called on and responded in his characteristic happy manner, eliciting much applause and laughter.

Mr. J. J. Perez was next called and in a very forcible speech attacked the infamous order so often referred to and gave its history, which we regret not having room to publish. The secret of the milk in the cocoanut of Grant's hatred to the Jews, was in the fact that he found that they were keener and sharper business men than he or his father.

At the close of his remarks, Mr. Judah moved that an Executive Committee be appointed, who should be empowered to act, in case it became necessary at any future time to call another meeting.

The motion was carried and the following committee appointed: J. H. Judah, Chairman; L. Kremer, H. M. Lowenstein, N. Coronna, J. S. Menken, A. Seessel, Ben Eiseman, T. Folz, Chas. Strauss, J. J. Perez.

To which, on motion, the Chair was added.

A vote of thanks was tendered the Memphis Club, for the use of their hall, and, on motion, the meeting adjourned.

Long before the close the spacious room was filled full, there having been at least five hundred and fifty persons present.

THE GRAND JURY.

Report to Hon. G. W. Waldran.

The Grand Jury returned into the Municipal Court the following report, which was ordered to be spread upon the records:

To the Hon. Geo. W. Waldran, Judge of the Municipal Court of Memphis:

We, the grand jurors empaneled and sworn for the June term of your honorable court, respectfully state that we have carefully, patiently, and we believe, thoroughly investigated the condition of the police and other matters given us in charge, and find that, although supported at an enormous expense to the city of Memphis and county of Shelby, the Metropolitan Police force is practically impotent in operation for the suppression of crime; that gaming houses are publicly open every night in our city under the very eye of the police, and virtually under their protection; a system of imaginary arrest but real license having been adopted by the Chief of Police, by which fare banks and keno rooms, on payment of a certain sum per week or month, are exempted from further molestation in violation of the law of the land. It appearing from evidence before us that this inattention of the Chief of Police, is superinduced by his deriving, as he does under the system mentioned above, from houses of prostitution and gaming hells, a large and daily increasing revenue. In view of obtaining a thorough knowledge of the workings of the police, this jury requested your honor to furnish them with two expert clerks to overhaul the accounts of said force, and also that of the City Tax Collector upon Privileges, to whose report, marked "Exhibit A," we call your especial attention, being entirely too voluminous to be shown in this report, further than to call your attention to the fact that during the existence of said police force they have paid for "lawyers' fees" about $8000 of the police money. The receipts as shown by the Clerk's books, from July, 1867, to May, 1868, $154,766 80; disbursements, $153,094 48; balance on hand, $1672 32—being all the balance shown towards paying the debt due the State of Tennessee. Also your attention to that portion of Clerk's report showing weekly and monthly collections of fines from houses of ill-fame and gambling houses, and other sources of revenue. We find that it has become the rule, rather than the exception, for citizens of all classes, regardless of color, to carry concealed weapons; yet, strange to relate, evidence as to the individuals is hard to obtain, from the simple fact that it has become too common to attract attention. That dram shops are kept open on Sunday, and liquors not only sold in the suburbs, but in the very heart of the city of Memphis, with but rare interruptions on the part of the police, who of necessity must have had cognizance of the fact. That no attempt has been made on the part of the police to suppress houses of prostitution, except by the infliction of a trifling fine, collected at certain intervals from the inmates of the bagnios.

We have visited the county jail, and while fully appreciating its architectural beauty, we consider the ventilation imperfect, in consequence of the trap doors of the cells being closed and the scarcity of water, a positive evil. We find a general complaint on the part of the prisoners, black and white, male and female, as to the quality and quantity of their food, and believe there are causes of complaint; that the prisoners do not get sufficient exercise, and respectfully suggest that Maj. Foster has not sufficient help to enable him to give them the daily exercise of an hour, which this jury considers positively necessary during the summer months; that there are many persons confined in the jail that have been there many months upon frivolous charges, and we respectfully call the immediate attention of the Attorney General to the fact, and that those not indicted be dis charged.

That we respectfully tender our thanks to your honor and the various officers of your honorable court for the kindness and courtesy extended to us in our some what prolonged session. All of which is respectfully submitted. J. L. Sharpe, Foreman; Henry E. Green, J. D. Wimberly, J. H. Grant, John Curk, J. Grant, W. H. Scanlan, B. B. Ragland, J. C. Quinlan, J. H. Merrett, W. C. Thompson, Lewis Amis, jr., J. H. Choate.

WICKERSHAM.

The bondsmen, their lawyers, the Sheriff, President of the Board of County Commissioners, and others interested, assembled yesterday promptly at twelve o'clock to resume the counting of the effects of that box. Before beginning, some friends of Wickersham's asked to be allowed to drop a small package of bank notes into the box along with the amount to be counted—the said small package to consist of $10,000 in cash—this amount being found necessary on a sort of informal caucus, or count, to bring the "scarlet sinner" up to the amount which he had repeatedly asserted was in the box, and that was called for by receipts in possession of the County Clerk and the Tax Collector. Mr. Donovan, however, was wide awake, and told the "friend" that he had started out as Mr. Wickersham's friend, but had been again and again deceived and lied to by him; that Mr. Wickersham had had every opportunity to prove himself an honest man and had failed to do so, and now he intended to prove him a scoundrel (or words to this effect). The Court accordingly proceeded without the addition, and lasted until after six o'clock. On a summing up the contents of the box proved to be $78,084 23, or $10,736 07 less than there should have been—proving the accuracy of the estimate of the defalcation. From this amount is to be taken, however, his commissions, $2082 42, which will reduce the amount that Wickersham's "friend" will have to ante up to $8653 65.

During the counting we understand that an arrangement was made between Judge Lewis, who holds Wickersham's power of attorney, to pay over into the county treasury the amount of the defalcation, and this morning the bonds of the bondsmen will be cancelled.

We hope this is the last time that we will have to notice this affair, as, no matter how spicy a thing is, it soon palls on the taste when it is toujours perdrix.

MEETING AT STILLMAN HALL

Young Men's Independent Democratic Club.

Enthusiasm, Speeches, etc.

A large attendance was present last night at the second regular meeting of the Independent Democratic Club. Gen. Rucker, the President, called the meeting to order, when the proceedings of the last meeting were read and approved.

An Executive Committee of seven was appointed by the chair.

A call was then made for all those present who had not enrolled their names as members, and were desirous of doing so, to come forward and sign the roll. From thirty to fifty persons put down their names.

Speeches were made by Col. James B. Marshall, Maj. Halsey, Van. A. W. Anderson, Esq., Col. Tyler, of the Ledger, Judge A. P. Foute, and others. The speeches were terse and to the point, and were received with applause by all present.

A motion was made by Van A. W. Anderson, Esq., and carried, that each member contribute fifty cents per week as an expense fund.

A motion was then made by Capt. Geo. Mellersh, that all the young gentlemen of the Club who were musicians, should form themselves into a Glee Club. Motion adopted.

A motion was made that the Club meet on Saturday evening next at Court Square and be conducted to the meeting of the Central Club at Stillman Block, each member wearing a badge or ribbon bearing the names of Seymour and Blair.

Previous to adjournment a further accession of members was made to the number of twenty-five or thirty.

Upon motion the meeting adjourned.

POLICE ITEMS.

—The Grand Jury failing to bring in an indictment against Martin Griffin, charged with killing Strange, the negro who was shot on Sunday night, he was yesterday discharged by 'Squire Griffith.

—Isaac Coleman, one of the little darkies who were charged with stealing blacksmith tools, was yesterday sent to the Criminal Court by 'Squire Griffith, under $1000 bonds.

—Hiram Tolliver, the negro who did the fatal shooting in Fort Pickering on Monday evening, was yesterday committed to jail, without bail, to await the action of the Grand Jury.

—A certain Deputy Constable, while perambulating Second street, yesterday, in all the glory of a pair of new second-hand breeches which he had purchased from those fashionable dealers in old clothes, Messrs. Peblow & Grindrod, was accosted by a darky, who said, "I say boss, dem dar's my briches 'cause I got 'em." The Deputy indignantly denied the soft impeachment, and wanted to argue and temporize; but Cuffee was pertinacious in his assertion of ownership, and inexorable in his demands for "dem briches;" and the Deputy finally told him where he obtained the goods. Cuffee left him immediately, to hunt up Constable Hayden, who is the forlorn hope of all darkies in trouble, or want to get into it; and while he did so, the Deputy made tracks for the aforesaid fashionable dealers in old clothes, and shucked the mooted breeches, received back his money, and with his old clothes on again, sought the classic freestinks of the Opera House, there to meet with the robbed African, who had, meanwhile, procured a search warrant, and was then on his way to search the clothing emporium of Messrs. Peblow & Grindrod. This was done, the breeches recovered and the enterprising dealers in "hand-me-downs" arrested. On being brought before 'Squire Black yesterday evening, the African did not appear, and the case was continued, in order to give the Deputy a chance to find him.

—Missouri Forrest, an "ebony idle," had Mahaly Ray, a frail black sister (whose kinky locks have been silvered with the snows of sixteen summers), arrested on charge of "larceny." The case was a clear one, and sweet sixteen done up in tar, was sent up in default of $2000 bond, to answer to Judge Hunter.

—There were twenty-eight arrests in the First District up to 1 o'clock this morning.

—There were eleven arrests in the Second District up to 8 o'clock last night—$60 assessed in fines, and $30 collected.

—A negro woman living in an alley between Second and Third streets and Madison and Monroe, tried to commit suicide last night about midnight, but did not succeed. "Domestic difficulty" the trouble. Chloroform would not kill her.

GROVESTEEN & CO.,

THESE instruments, after the most flattering testimonials from the first Pianists in the country, who, at our solicitation, have tested them in the severest manner possible, have been pronounced THE FINEST SQUARE PIANO-FORTE MADE IN THE WORLD.

Our superior facilities enable us to offer them from one to three hundred dollars less than any other First Class House.

The tone of these instruments are remarkable for their peculiar Sweetness and Great Brilliancy, never losing their quality when forced to their utmost capacity. The lower register retaining its positiveness, does not destroy the middle and upper registers by mingling with them in disagreeable confusion, the refined delicacy of touch being equally delightful to the unpracticed and to the most cultivated ear.

They are an entirely new style of Piano, finished in the most superb manner, with four full round corners front and back, heavily carved legs and Lyre Serpentine Base. Every instrument and each instrument is fully warranted for five years. sep6 d&w1y

MEMPHIS APPEAL.

BY TELEGRAPH.

Noon Dispatches.

NEW YORK, July 15.—The Herald's Washington dispatch says Chief Justice Chase has again declared himself in full sympathy with the Democratic party. He disagrees with the plank in their platform relative to Southern constructions. He believes that these constructions should stand until changed by the people of each State—all voting.

If the Radical programme prevails the vote of those three States cannot be counted in the Presidential election.

Hendricks commanded the attention of the Senate in his speech, in which he took a review of the political situation, and scored the Radicals terribly for their tergiversations. He presented the issues of the campaign with clearness and ability.

Salnave is likely to succeed in his opposition to the Coco rebellion. The insurgents are now besieging Port-au-Prince. They were repulsed in an assault made on the 1st inst.

On the 2d inst. Ganaives was still besieged. That place as well as Cape Haytien still hold out for President Salnave.

It is now believed that seven or eight persons were lost by the accident on the steamer Stephen How, on Monday evening.

The thermometer yesterday ranged from 96 to 106°. There were forty-seven cases of sunstroke in this city.

MONTGOMERY, ALA., July 15.—The Legislature contains thirty negroes. The Senate door-keeper and the Sergeant-at-Arms and Chaplain of the House are all negroes.

Gov. Smith's inaugural favors the removal of disabilities.

LOUISVILLE, July 15.—The Courier's Washington special says there are a few sore head temporary sojourners there who failed to secure the nomination of their friends at New York, and are talking of a third party movement, but there is not a respectable politician in it, and it will fall stillborn. The names of Chase and other prominent persons have been used in connection with it, but without authority. It is definitely settled that that all the Southern States, excepting Virginia, Texas and Mississippi, will be admitted to representation in Congress before its adjournment.

Under the 14th constitutional amendment, the States refusing to allow negro suffrage lose representation in proportion, but it is understood that it will not be applied until after the next census.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY APPEAL, } MEMPHIS, July 15, 1868. }

There was no change in the general or money markets to day. All branches of trade are dull, and prices are about as they were yesterday. By a dispatch to Mr. Cherry from Mr. Woodruff, at Louisville, we learn that the Committee spoken of yesterday, who went to Washington in reference to the Merchants' National Bank, will arrive in town today. From all that we can hear the opening of the bank will soon follow their arrival.

In Exchanges rates remain steady with light offerings and demand. Buying Eastern bills at par to ¼ premium. Selling at ½ premium.

Gold opened in New York to-day at 142, and closed at 142¾. Buying at 140 to 141; selling at 142. Our buying rates are governed somewhat by the amount offered. A large sum—say $500 to $1000—would sell at 142 to a broker, but small amounts are taken at ¼c less.

The following are to day's New York quotations on Governments: Coupons, '81, 113; do '62, 113; do '64, 10; do '65, 11; new issue, 8; do '67, 8; 10-40's, 7; 7-30's, 2d and 3d, 8@8; Old Tennessees, 71; new do 69.

Stocks and Bonds are nominally unchanged. The demand for all kinds of Railroad Securities is greater than the offerings. We quote as follows: Memphis City bonds, 55 to 56. Memphis Gas Company stock, $1 50. Mississippi Central Railroad, 1st mortgage bonds, 58c; 2d do. 40c. Mississippi and Tennessee, 1st mortgage bonds, 50. Memphis and Charleston stock, 56. Memphis and Louisville, 1st mortgage bonds, 30 to 31c; 2d do. 20c. Memphis and Little Rock bonds, 40c.

City Scrip is weak at 70 to 72, buying; selling at 75 to 76.

County Warrants dull at 50c, buying; 65 to 67c, selling.

Police Scrip dull at 70 to 72, buying; selling at 75 to 80c.

The Merchants' Bank of Montreal decided to raise its capital to $4 000,000.

A great International Commercial Convention is to be held in Portland, Maine, on the 4th of August, to consider the various projects now before the country for increasing the facilities of intercourse between the interior and the Atlantic seaboard, to urge the adoption of measures to relieve commerce of unnecessary burdens, and to secure unrestricted freedom of trade throughout North America. Delegates are expected from all sections of the country.

The nearest approach which the Government can now make to taxing the accumulated capital of the country in the form of United States Bonds, is to tax the interest, and this the House of Representatives at least is disposed to do, as a vote of ninety two to fifty four recently instructed the Ways and Means Committee to bring in a bill to that effect. The interest on United States Bonds is now so high, and they enjoy so many exemptions from taxation, that capital is attracted to them to the detriment of numerous other important interests. The only really bright hope for the country at large in regard to the bonded debt is that by the time that the Government has any option in the matter, legislators will be educated up to the point of requiring them to be called in, and their place supplied by long bonds at low rates of interest, and without the special exemptions which are now so exasperating to all the community except the large bondholders.

The Wheat crop of California is reported as promising unusual returns. Letters from the Sacramento Valley give very encouraging accounts of the crops generally, and speak of the wheat product as remarkable in its yield, promising more to the acre than any previous crop since the occupation of the country by Americans. The rainy season continued much later than usual the present year in that region, and the people felt great apprehension of logged and tangled fields, which, when they happen, bid defiance to the crop gatherers. But recent accounts represent the fields as in good condition, with the prospect of an unexampled product.

Cotton at the opening in Liverpool today was quiet—Uplands 11¼d; Orleans 11¾d; and was unchanged to the close. Sales 9000 bales.

The New York market at the opening was dull, and prices, though unchanged, were tending downwards. At noon it was dull and drooping, and at the close was still tending to lower prices, though no change was reported in quotations. Sales 500 bales.

Our market was dull, with Middlings nominally 30 to 31c. No sales to report
